Dedicated and empathetic, brings calm to complex situations and combines legal thinking with a keen sense for people.

Since 2025, Alina Velija has been supporting the law firm as a legal assistant and staff member. She successfully completed her studies in Applied Law at the ZHAW in 2025 and plans to pursue a part-time Master's degree in the field of law. Prior to her role as a legal assistant and staff member, she worked in various customer-facing and administrative roles. Through these experiences, she has developed a solution-oriented and collaborative approach. She appreciates complex challenges, thinks in a structured manner, and actively engages in dynamic environments.
