In a constantly changing environment, tailored solutions are in demand. As an experienced notary, she develops pragmatic solutions for her clients that are tailored to their needs.

As an attorney and notary, Andrea Schmutz has extensive experience in corporate law, real estate law, matrimonial property law, and inheritance law. She advises companies on incorporation and restructuring, assists clients with public share subscription procedures, and provides notarial support for general meetings of international listed companies. Her practice includes estate and succession planning for private individuals and companies, and advising investors and construction companies on land register and building law for real estate projects.
