I am currently pursuing a Master's degree in Economics, am a passionate competitive athlete, would like to learn Japanese, and look forward to my new role at Kellerhals Carrard in Basel.

Born and raised in Basel in a trilingual environment, speaking German, Italian and Croatian, I have always had a keen interest in languages and cultures. As a former member of the Swiss U23 national rowing team, my sporting passion is now focused on triathlon and endurance sports.

After completing my Bachelor's degree in Business and Economics at the University of Basel, I am currently pursuing a Master's degree in Economics and look forward to taking on my new professional role at Kellerhals Carrard in Basel.
