'If you want to build a ship, don't drum up people to collect wood and don't assign them tasks and work, but rather teach them to long for the endless immensity of the sea.' – Antoine de Saint Exupéry

Costante Ghielmetti offers advice on national and international tax law to legal entities and individuals. His activities extend in particular to tax assistance in mergers and acquisitions (M&A) transactions, tax litigation and advice in the context of the generational transfer of a family business.
