Reliable, analytical and dedicated, with a structured approach and a focus on the highest level of precision.

David Riedo has been studying law at the University of Bern since autumn 2023. Alongside his studies, he works as a clerk in the property sector, where he prepares service charge statements, energy assessments and allocation keys, and advises on property management in arbitration proceedings. He is distinguished by his analytical skills as well as his structured and dedicated approach to his work. Since November 2026, he has been providing reliable support to Dr Michael Daphinoff's team with administrative tasks and day-to-day practice operations.
