With clear eyes and a full heart – your attorney for intellectual property, competition and contract law.

Eliane advises companies on intellectual property and commercial matters, with a strong focus on the life sciences sector. She specializes in drafting and negotiating complex commercial and IP-driven agreements, including research and development collaborations, manufacturing, supply and distribution arrangements, as well as in- and out-licensing transactions.

Her expertise also covers unfair competition, advertising law and data privacy. In addition, Eliane represents clients in national and international proceedings.
