"They did not know it was impossible so they did it"

– Mark Twain

Elias Scheidegger holds a bilingual (German/French) Master of Laws from the University of Fribourg, which he supplemented with a year abroad at Durham Law School (UK). He gained valuable practical experience through his work as a teaching assistant during his studies and through various internships with judicial authorities.

Since October 2026, he has been completing his legal internship at Kellerhals Carrard to obtain his Bern attorney's license. In this role, he works on a wide range of projects across various areas of law.
