Kellerhals Carrard Geneva

Rue François-Bellot 6

1206 Geneva

Organised, efficient and meticulous by nature, with a strong sense of professionalism, she is committed to delivering high-quality work.

Holding a degree in English Literature, Emmanuelle has worked in demanding professional environments, in both French and English.

With more than 16 years of experience at a Big Four firm, she has developed broad expertise across legal matters (corporate law, M&A, employment law, etc.), as well as tax and audit. She subsequently joined a major Zurich-based law firm, where she worked for over six years at its Geneva office, focusing on intellectual property, litigation and arbitration.

She joined Kellerhals Carrard in October 2025.
