'The impediment to action advances action. What stands in the way becomes the way. The obstacle is the path.' – Marcus Aurelius

Giacomo Keller attended the University of Zurich, where he obtained his Bachelor of Law in 2024 and his Master of Law in 2026, enriching his academic path with a semester at the University of Geneva.

During his university studies, he held the position of research assistant at the Chair of Human Rights and Family Law of the University of Zurich, gaining in-depth knowledge of regulatory developments in these fields at both the national and international level.

Since September 2026, he has been completing his legal traineeship in the Litigation team of Kellerhals Carrard Lugano SA.
