‘No problem is insoluble in all conceivable circumstances.’ - Isaac Asimov

Kevin Thomas-Pucci regularly advises on corporate reorganisation and financing transactions, as well as on matters relating to corporate governance and the conduct of business operations.
Drawing on extensive experience in banking and finance, he assists financial intermediaries and other financial market participants in addressing their legal and regulatory issues. He is also involved in contentious proceedings, particularly in the area of white-collar crime, in cases involving significant economic, regulatory, and reputational stakes.
