Legal solutions that speak your language – versatile, international and goal-oriented.

Kim Lindner specializes in corporate law, M&A transactions, and intellectual property rights. As a member of the Start-up Desk, she is also particularly engaged in providing comprehensive support to start-ups and venture capital investors at every stage – from navigating the first steps of the company formation process to adding the finishing touches that ensure a successful exit.

Supported by her multilingual education and practical experience in the field of European law her practice centers on advising national and international clients in cross-border matters.
