A conscientious and structured lawyer with a keen sense of precision who is committed and reliable in developing legal solutions.

Kübra Karaman has in-depth legal knowledge and extensive experience in analyzing complex issues. She focuses on the legal assessment and handling of challenging cases, particularly in connection with COVID-19 loans. She is known for her precise, structured approach and develops practical solutions with great care.

Before working as a lawyer, she gained a wide range of experience as a legal intern in the canton of Solothurn. She worked in a court, in administration, and in a law firm, gaining valuable insights into different legal working methods. With her analytical thinking, structured approach, and willingness to learn, she is ideally qualified to efficiently tackle complex legal challenges.
