Providing the best advice for our Middle Eastern Clients

Laurent Moser is Lead Counsel worldwide for influential families in the Middle East and accordingly he advises them on family governance and provides them with estate planning services and residence matters. In addition, he manages complex cases on their behalf, both of a business nature and of an altruistic nature, requiring the development of a strategy as well as the management of multidisciplinary teams, management of the press or of governments.
He also works in the field of hospitality, intervening both at the legal level during the transaction and in the active representation of hotel owners in dealing with prestigious hotel chains.
He maintains close ties with the Seychelles, a country that has granted him citizenship.
