Dedicated and solution-oriented – with a calm intuition focused on pragmatic results.

Loris Steffen obtained his Master's degree in law from the University of Bern in 2024. He gained practical legal experience during his studies, working for a lawyer specializing in civil and criminal law and in a law firm specializing in tax and corporate law. After completing various internships, he joined Kellerhals Carrard in October 2025 and is currently completing his year of legal training in preparation for the Bern bar exam. He supports the partners and employees in the firm's various areas of expertise.
