Highly capable, results-oriented expertise in national and international legal matters.

Luca Lüthi completed his master's degree in law at the University of Bern in 2025, spending his final semester at the University of Helsinki as part of the SEMP exchange program. He gained his first insights into international law while working as a research assistant at the Institute for European and International Economic Law. He also gained practical experience as a student assistant at a notary's office and as a court intern at a regional court. As part of his year as a trainee attorney at Kellerhals Carrard, he is preparing for the Bern bar exam. He works in all practice areas of the firm.
