Competent, responsible and solution-oriented advice at the interface of law and technology.

Manuel Brogli is a lawyer specializing in financial market law, FinTech and technology law. He holds an LL.M. from the Northwestern Pritzker School of Law. His main areas of expertise are the planning and implementation of innovative business models (e.g. in the areas of DLT & AI) as well as support in licensing and supervisory proceedings before the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority FINMA and other organizations. As a certified anti-money laundering specialist (CAMS) and a long-standing specialist member of the Swiss Leasing Association's self-regulatory organization for money laundering law (SRO/SLV), Manuel also has in-depth knowledge of all areas of money laundering law.

Manuel Brogli's other areas of activity include general contract law and, in particular, issues relating to the leasing, consumer credit and credit card business.
