Experienced and pragmatic facilitator who loves her profession and always finds a solution

Manuela Brenneis-Hobi has several years of experience as a notary. She assists clients in the purchase and sale of properties as well as investors and construction companies in more complex real estate projects and transactions. She also provides advice and notarial services in matters relating to matrimonial property and inheritance law (marriage, inheritance and renunciation agreements, wills) as well as corporate and commercial register law (incorporations, domicile relocations, capital increases and reductions, mergers, conversions, liquidations, etc.). She can also offer all of the aforementioned services in English as she is fluent in the language.
