Kellerhals Carrard Geneva
Rue François-Bellot 6
1206 Geneva

Dynamic, always looking for the best solution in the shortest possible time. Passionate about other cultures, which is what made immigration law my main interest.

Since 2013 Mariana Alijo has specialized in the field of immigration law. She advises her clients mainly on issues such as residence permits, work permits, family reunification, and Swiss naturalization. In addition, she represents her clients in their day-to-day dealings with the various Swiss immigration authorities, with which she has established strong relationships.
