Kellerhals Carrard Lugano

Via Canova 15
Postfach 1571
6901 Lugano

Martina is contemplative, pragmatic and optimistic by nature. She is an open-minded individual, and is always willing to listen and to look for positive and functional solutions. Martina is fascinated by technology and design.

Having been with Kellerhals Carrard for 20 years now, Martina began her career as an assistant to Prof. Henry Peter and then became increasingly involved in administrative and HR management tasks.

Before joining Kellerhals Carrard (formerly Sganzini Bernasconi Peter & Gaggini), after a period of study in Germany, Martina spent over ten years working for companies in the IT sector as a purchasing manager, logistics manager, product manager and contact person for Microsoft Select Key Accounts.
