3001 Bern

Specialized in complex commercial, contract, and sports‑related disputes, I deliver precise and efficient solutions tailored to your needs.

Robin Juchler is specialized in national and international commercial litigation and arbitration. He focuses on dispute resolution before commercial courts and arbitral tribunals. He has experience in corporate, commercial, contract, and sports law.

Another key area of his practice is the enforcement of international court judgments and arbitral awards. He also represents clients in challenge proceedings against arbitral awards or commercial court decisions before the Swiss Federal Supreme Court.

In addition, Robin Juchler regularly supports clients in contract negotiations, particularly in financing and partnership matters. He also advises on sports law issues, including sponsorship agreements, club and federation governance, and sports‑related disputes.
