Astronomy, photography and cooking. I'm enthusiastic about many things. Passion, perseverance and concentration are always crucial. The same applies to the attorney's profession: You will only achieve success and client satisfaction if you have the right attitude towards a mandate.

As a certified specialist in employment law (SBA), Urs Marti is a specialist in all issues of employment law (individual and collective employment law as well as public employment law). He also has extensive experience in all areas of contract law and commercial law. In addition to providing legal advice to companies and private individuals, his work focuses on the personal support and representation of his clients in legal disputes.
