Circumstances can force your hand. So, think ahead!

Victor Argand advises private clients, SMEs and start-ups on business law (corporate law, commercial contracts, employment law). As for private clients, he also advises on immigration, taxation, real estate, trusts and inheritance law. This combination of know-how bridges the gap between clients' personal and professional affairs.

Victor sits on the board of directors of various companies and on the board of several philanthropic foundations. He is a member of the Geneva Bar and has previously worked for a prestigious UK law firm.
