Open-minded, precise, and solution-oriented

Yaëlle Etter has been studying law at the University of Bern since 2024. As a member of the Swiss women's national padel team, she learned early on how to deal with pressure and take on new challenges – skills that benefit her both in her studies and in her everyday work.

Since March 2026, she has been supporting the reception at Kellerhals Carrard with her cheerful and reliable manner and is also responsible for the library and archives.
